

Boo-Games @ Media and Learning 2013

The Media & Learning Conference is the place to be if you are interested in the latest developments, services and uses of media in education and training. Aimed at both policy makers and practitioners, the purpose of this annual event is to identify policies and initiatives that promote digital and media competence at all levels of education and training as well as to promote best-practice in the take-up and application of media in education and training.

CSP, partner of the project BOO-Games project, is also an active promoter for of the Media & Learning Conference 2013. Thanks to this collaboration BOO-Games will be present in the exhibition space of the Conference where there will be possible to deepen with some of the actors directly involved in the project

The conference will be held in Brussels 12-13th December 2013. For further info about the Media & Learning 2013: <http://www.media-and-learning.eu>
